

EN - Acknowledgements

This exhibition presents original artworks by Sergi Aguilar (Barcelona, 1946), Ely Daou (Beirut, 1986), Logan B. Fields (United States, 1996), Teresa Gancedo (León, 1937), Marc Larré (Barcelona, 1978), Rebecca Lyne (Cambridgeshire, 1974), Josep Miracle (Barcelona, 1904), Lizette Nin (Domenican Republic, 1984) and Rubén Verdú (Caracas, 1962).

Of these, the works by Ely Daou, Logan B. Fields, Marc Larré, Rebecca Lyne and Lizette Nin were created specifically for this event.

This project has been conceived, produced and curated by Alexia Medici in collaboration with the Districte de Sants-Montjuïc - Ajuntament de Barcelona, La Lleiialtat Santseca and La Fundació Suñol, with the help and support of Jette Bjerg, Carles Ramos, Andreu Batllori, Sergi Aguilar, Teresa Gancedo, Agus Giralt, Francesco Russo, Núria Gurina, Patricia Marquès, Glòria Fernández, the team behind TV3 a la carta, Distinto Films and Josep Vall and Carmen from the Arxiu Municipal districte Sants-Montjuïc.

A special appreciation goes to Jette Bjerg and Carles Ramos for aiding in my investigations regarding cal Nicasi as well as to Manel Ollé, great grandson of Emilio Pintó and Baltasar Parera Coll, great grandson of Pedro Coll i Rigau for their support and invaluable contributions.

The texts about the historical context in English and Spanish were written by Alexia Medici with the help of Hector Picazo, Patrocínio Picazo and Marc Larré. Translated to Catalan by Esther Pariente and proofread in English by Christina Medici.